

CENTRE FOR CRITICAL THOUGHT SEMINAR SERIES/ THE FUTURE OF WORK

Speakers, titles, venues and dates

Thursday 22nd March, 17:00-19:00, RLT2

Valeria Graziano (Coventry University) and Kim Trogal (University of the Creative Arts, Canterbury): 'On repair movements, domestic fantasies and antiwork politics?'

Wednesday 28th March, 15:00-17:00, KS13

Dawn Lyon (UoK) 'Making a future that counts: Young people's narratives of working futures in a post-industrial landscape.'

Wednesday 9th May, 15:00-17:00, W1-SR6

David Frayne (Cardiff University): 'Capitalism and the Politics of Free-Time'

Wednesday 16th May, 15:00-17:00, W1-SR6

David Bates (Canterbury Christ Church University): 'Immaterial Labour, Exploitation and the Refusal of Work.'

Tuesday 22nd May, 17:00-19:00, RLT2

Annalise Murgia (University of Leeds): 'Experiencing Precariousness in the Hybrid Areas of Work: The Case of Italy.'

All University staff and students are welcome to attend, no booking necessary

Further information

T: 01227 827523

E: B.Turner@kent.ac.uk

<https://www.kent.ac.uk/cct/events/index.html>

