

Workshop “Economic and Psychological Perspectives on Social Issues using an Experimental Approach”

Keynes College, University of Kent, 20-21 April 2016

Programme Structure

DAY 1: Wednesday 20 April

09.00-09.25: Arrival, registration and coffee (room KS15)

09.25-09.30: Opening remarks (room KS16)

09.30-11.00: Faculty session (room KS16)

11.00-11.15: Coffee break (room KS15)

11.15-12.45: Student sessions (rooms KS16 and KS17)

12.45-13.30: Lunch (room KS15)

13.30-15.30: Faculty session (room KS16)

15.30-15.40: Coffee break (room KS15)

15.40-16:40: Student sessions (rooms KS16 and KS17)

16:40-17.00: Coffee break (room KS15)

17.00-18.30: Faculty session (room KS16)

20.00: Dinner at Salt

DAY 2: Thursday 21 April

09.30-11.00: Faculty session (room KS13)

11.00-11.15: Coffee break (room KS14)

11.15-12.15: Student sessions (rooms KS13 and KS12)

12.15-13.00: Lunch (room KS14)

13.00-14.30: Faculty session (room KS13)

15.15-17.30: Brainstorming sessions (rooms KS13 and KS12)

Programme

DAY 1: Wednesday 20 April

09.00-09.25: Arrival, registration and coffee (room KS15)

09.25-09.30: Opening remarks (room KS16)

09.30-11.00: Incentives in Social Sciences and Team Performance (room KS16)

Fernanda Leon (KENT-ECO), Ben Mcquillin and Raquel Campos: “Lost in the Storm: the Academic Collaborations that went missing on the Hurricane Isaac.”

Roger Giner-Sorolla (KENT-PSY): “Opening the File Drawer in Experimental Social Science Research”

Stefania Sitzia (UEA-ECO) and Jiwei Zheng: “The effectiveness of focal point in team-based coordination.”

11.00-11.15: Coffee break (room KS15)

11.15-12.45: Student session: Hierarchy (room KS17)

Stefan Leach (KENT-PSY): “Social power and affective experiences”

Chanki Moon (KENT-PSY): “Understanding cultural dynamics in response to hierarchical pressures through the lens of social norms”

Daniel Redhead (ESSEX-PSY): “The focal actor exchange game: measuring the effects of prestige and dominance on network structure and position”

11.15-12.45: Student session: Endowment and Ageism (room KS16)

Denise Lovett (KENT-ECO): “Unrestricted leadership in a linear public good game”

Vanessa Dias (KENT-PSY): “The social psychological and organisational consequences of ageism”

Lian Xue (UEA-ECO), Theodore Turocy, Stefania Sitzia: “The effect of joint endowment on coordination success”

12.45-13.30: Lunch (room KS15)

13.30-15.30: Risk Preferences, Ostracism and Contagion (room KS16)

Iain Fraser (KENT-ECO): “Characterizing risk preferences under prospect theories: a study of Ghanaian farmers”

Sheheryar Banuri (UEA-ECO), Stefan Dercon and Varun Gauri: “The Biases of Policymakers”

Ayse Uskul (KENT-PSY) and Harriet Over: “Economic culture moderates children's responses to ostracism.”

Aikaterini Karadimitropoulou (UEA-ECO), John Duffy and Melanie Parravano: “Financial Contagion in the Lab: Does Network Structure Matter?”

15.30-15.40: Coffee break (room KS15)

15.40-16.40: Student Session: Group Effects and Redistribution (room KS16)

Varoth Chotipitayasunondh (KENT-PSY) and Karen M. Douglas: “Does ‘phubbing’ ruin our friendship? An investigation of human interaction on being snubbed by someone using their smartphone”

Rael Dawtry: (ESSEX-PSY): “Why wealthy people think people are wealthier: the role of the sampling processes in preferences for redistribution”

15.40-16.40: Student Session: Coordination and Cognitive Issues (room KS17)

Jiwei Zheng (UEA-ECO), David Rojo Arjona, Sitzia Stefania: “Restoring the power of focal points - an experimental investigation”

Chloe Tyler (KENT- PSY): “Contact sans contact: the theory underpinning an experiential mental health stigma-reduction approach”

16:40-17.00: Coffee break (room KS15)

17.00-18.30: Coordination (room KS16)

Odile Poulsen (UEA-ECO): “Stake sizes, focal points and losses: experimental evidence”

Edward Cartwright (KENT-ECO): “Distinguishing between coordination and fairness rules in a social dilemma”

Mario Weick (KENT-PSY): “Experiments fail to solve systemic problems: Experiences from the Lloyd's reinsurance market”

20.00: Dinner at Salt

DAY 2: Thursday 21 April

09.30-11.00: Bargaining, Conspiracy Theories and Public Goods (room KS13)

Anders Poulsen (UEA-ECO), Fabio Galeotti and Maria Montero: “How Strong are the Attraction and Compromise Effects in Bargaining?”

Karen Douglas (KENT-PSY) and Ana Leite: “Suspicion in the workplace: Organizational conspiracy theories and work-related outcomes”

Anna Stepanova (KENT-ECO): “Threshold public good games and impulse balance”

11.00-11.15: Coffee break (room KS14)

11.15-12.15: Student session: Risk Preferences II (room KS13)

Christian Crentsil (KENT-ECO): “Effect of risk attitudes on production choice of smallholder fish farmers in southern Ghana”

Alistair Thorpe (ESSEX- PSY): “Experience-based severity effect in a situation of risk and uncertainty”

11.15-12.15: Student session: Framing Effects (room KS12)

Lynsey Mahmood (KENT-PSY): “A moment of mindfulness: Computer-mediated mindfulness practice increases state mindfulness.”

Anwasha Muekerjee (UEA-ECO), Subhasish M. Chowdhury and Theodore Turocy: “Framing and overbidding in tullock contests”

12.15-13.00: Lunch (room KS14)

13.00-14.30: Effects of Social Preferences on Individual Behaviour (room KS13)

David Hugh Jones (UEA-ECO): “Honesty and beliefs about honesty in 15 societies”

Aleksandra Cichocka (KENT-PSY), Wiesław Baryła, Bogdan Wojciszke: “Legitimization of wealth vs. status in the post-Communist context”

Zaki Wahhaj (KENT-ECO) and Niaz Asadullah: “Poverty, Self-Control and Aspirations: A Field Experiment Approach”

15.15-17.30: Brainstorming Sessions (rooms KS13 and KS12)