

Parenting and Personhood: Cross-cultural perspectives on expertise, family life and risk management

Programme

Wednesday 22nd June, Floor 3 Cornwallis NE, University of Kent, Room 329 and Roof Terrace

This opening half day is an opportunity to meet and network with others coming to the conference. It will be held in rooms in the new building of the School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research (SSPSSR) at the University of Kent, which is home to the Centre for Parenting Culture Studies (CPCS).

A map showing the location of Cornwallis NE Building is here (the front entrance is on Giles Lane)

2pm Welcome and brief introduction to CPCS.

Tea and coffee available through the afternoon.

5.30-7pm Welcome from Professor Sarah Vickerstaff, Head of School SSPSSR. Wine reception and nibbles.

For the evening, delegates are asked to make their own arrangements for dinner on campus or in Canterbury (the city centre is a 25 minute walk or short bus ride away).

Thursday 23rd June, The Cathedral Lodge, Canterbury

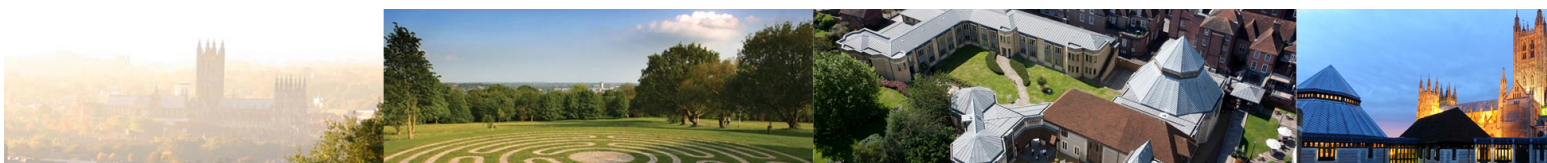

This day of the conference will take place on the grounds of Canterbury Cathedral, using the Cathedral's excellent conference facilities. Weather permitting, we also hope to be able to make use of the lovely grounds around the Lodge in the sunshine during breaks! We have programmed a 'Free Time' break between the last discussion and dinner. For those who arrive on Thursday, there will be time here to check in to your accommodation, and get back into Canterbury for the dinner. Another option is to attend Matins in the Cathedral.
