The local transportation system in London is so well connected that no matter which area you choose to stay, it makes commuting a breeze in the city.

Bus

Travelling to Main Site Campus

Buses that stop directly outside: 72, 265, 493.
Buses that stop at either Roehampton Village or Upper Richmond Road (Rosslyn Park RFC), each a short walk from the Campus on Roehampton Lane: K3, 85, 170, 337.

Travelling to the Whitelands Site Campus

Buses that stop nearby: 72, 265, 493, 170, 493.
Travelling up Roehampton Lane, alight at the stop just before the junction with Danebury Avenue. Turn right down Danebury Avenue and then take the immediate left onto Holybourne Avenue. Whitelands is a minute's walk on the right-hand side. If you are travelling from the direction of the A3 alight at the stop just after the junction with Danebury Avenue.

Car

Please note, there is extremely limited parking on campus and in nearby streets. The University is easily accessible by public transport.

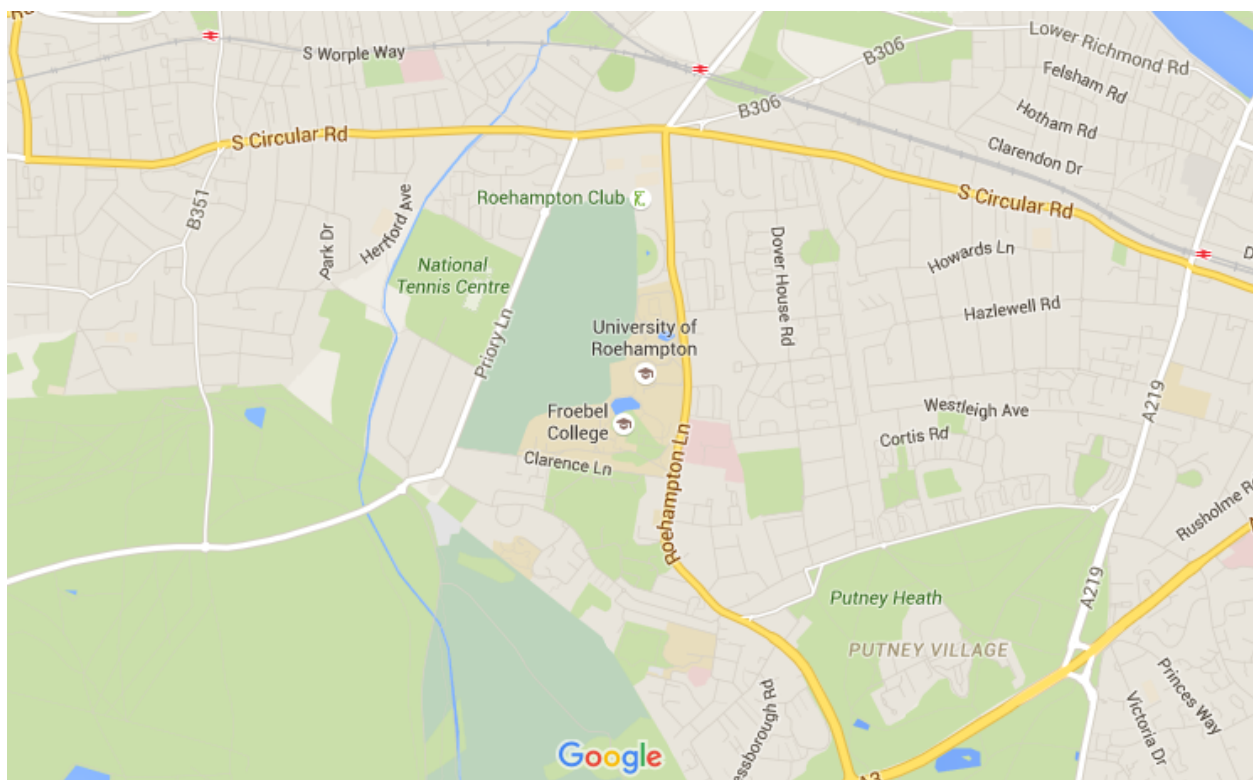

Tube

District/Piccadilly/Hammersmith & City lines to Hammersmith. Go to bus stop K in the Lower Bus Station next to the shopping centre and take bus 72 to all campuses.

District line to Putney Bridge. Go to bus stop FB and take bus 265 to all campuses.

Train

The nearest station is Barnes which is about 15 minutes' walk to the Main Site Campus or 25 minutes to Whitelands Campus. The 72 and 265 both stop at bus stop B (just outside Barnes station) and stop at all campuses. Trains to Barnes run from Clapham Junction, London Waterloo, Staines and Windsor.
