

ARE YOU DISABLED? DO YOU FACE BARRIERS?

Do you think that society creates barriers to inclusion, preventing disabled people from taking an equal part in life?

UNISON organises to challenge discriminatory actions and campaigns for a fair deal for disabled members on issues such as inaccessible workplace and negative attitudes and prejudice from employers.

Why get involved?

- Meet like-minded people
- Make sure YOU have a voice in UNISON
- Learn knowledge and tools to tackle discrimination against yourself and colleagues
- Confront difficult and sensitive issues with UNISON's support
- Influence UNISON policy-makers at all levels
- Use our shared experiences to develop policies that tackle discrimination and promote the equality agenda
- Campaign against discrimination, for civil rights legislation and on other issues important to our members
